Every effort will be made to complete the repair by the date specified, however we cannot be held responsible for delays out of our control, such as difficulty procuring parts or mechanic illness. We will complete the work as soon as reasonably possible. Cycles not collected days after completion may be sold to cover the cost of storage and repair but a calendar month's notice will be given before such action. You, the customer, agree to the work being carried out, and accept the terms outlined above.
